

Statute

Convocation

1. The Convocation shall consist of : -
  - (a) persons on whom an honorary degree or honorary fellowship has been conferred;
  - (b) graduates on receipt of an academic award at degree or postgraduate diploma level granted by the University;
  - (c) such other persons as may be prescribed by the Council.

2. The objectives of the Convocation shall be:
  - (a) To help promote goodwill among members of the Convocation and between the Convocation and the University;
  - (b) To offer help and ideas to the University;
  - (c) To promote good relations between the University and the general public;
  - (d) To contribute to fundraising efforts of the University;
  - (e) To promote the objectives and activities of the University.

3. The Constitution and Rules of the Convocation, and other matters relating to the Convocation shall be subject to approval of the Council and may be amended by the Council from time to time.

4. The business of the Convocation shall be conducted in accordance with its Constitution and the Rules.

5. Members of the Standing Committee shall be elected from members of the Convocation in accordance with the Constitution and the Rules. Any retiring Chairman shall be eligible for re-election except for the retiring Chairman who has, at the same time of such retirement, held such office for 2 consecutive full terms.

6. There shall be a Standing Committee of the Convocation which shall be the executive body of the Convocation.

7. An Annual General Meeting of the Convocation shall be convened by the Standing Committee every calendar year between January 1st and March 31st.

8. 30 members of the Convocation shall form a quorum for meetings.

9. A register containing the name of all members of the Convocation shall be kept by the Secretary of the Convocation.